Contacting Teaching Staff and Other Students

A message board will be placed on the door of the Institute office (2C12) at Dawson College and on the door of the Community House at Temple Emanu-el for students organizing social events, wishing to leave messages, or wishing to receive messages. Check the board regularly; you wouldn't want to miss anything!

If you would like to give your family a number where they can leave an emergency message, please ask them to call the McGill Centre for Educational Leadership at (514) 398-7044. The answering machine is always on if the office is closed. We will be sure to get the message to you as soon as possible. Please be sure that you inform the staff at the institute office (Dawson room 2C12) if you change workshop so that we know where to reach you in case of an emergency.

Breakfast and Lunch Spots

For a lite-bite nearby, the Dawson College Cafeteria in the atrium is open in July from 8 am to 8 pm Monday through Thursday.

You'll find quite a variety of quick and inexpensive meals at the Alexis Nihon Plaza Food Court just a hop skip and a jump away (the ramp just across from Dawson's 4001 entrance brings you the closest and is wheelchair accessible). Wheelchair access is also available through the mall entrance on Atwater near Baskin Robbins. Take the elevator located off the right alleyway near the Bank of Montreal, then exit on third floor and make your way through the row of doors. Opening hours are as early as 6:30 am for some of the concessions; closing hours are mostly 6 pm Mon -Wed and 9 pm Th and Fri.

If you desire more gourmet edibles, try the new Marché Westmount Square located under the chic apartment tower by the same name. Entrances at Greene Ave., Wood Ave., Ste-Catherine St. and Atwater Metro. Wheelchair access is through Westmount Square Building 2 on de Maisonneuve near Greene. Take the elevator down into the mall.

If the weather is nice and you don't mind serving yourself, Les 5 Saisons (an upscale grocery store, 1250 Greene Avenue) is the place to go for a great salad bar and fresh baked goods. Enjoy your lunch on their makeshift terrace out front, or picnic on the Dawson Campus !

You will find reliable sandwiches and coffee at the A.L. Van Houtte coffee shops at Alexis Nihon Plaza, and on Ste. Catherine St. near Elm.

Fast food lovers - do not despair! You will find your fix near the Forum (Atwater and Ste. Catherine St.) at McDonald's or Buffalo Bills (quick chicken wing lunch) etc. If you feel like walking, head east on Ste. Catherine St. for an even greater selection.

Afternoon Snacks and Happy Hour

Café Hot , 4104 Ste. Catherine St. West (corner of Wood behind Westmount Square), has graciously agreed to offer an afternoon special to our Summer Institute participants. Just mention McGill and receive a free coffee, regular or iced, with the purchase of cake or pie. Phil and Eben know to expect you.

Calories on Ste Catherine near Greene is well known for its rich desserts and regularly offers a "cappucino hour" special between 4 and 7 pm . There is a 20% discount on your order and free coffee with any dessert.

For a drink try Michael D's or Bistro on the Avenue on Greene Avenue or the newly opened York Café in the back of Westmount Square.

Dinner and Weekend Dining

Amelio's pizzeria, nearby RVC, can be found at 3565 Lorne Avenue between Milton and Prince Arthur Streets.

You'll find an all-you-can-eat shrimp and Chinese Food Buffet for less than $15 at The Mandarin, 1240 Stanley Street just south of Ste-Catherine Street.

Deli Food:

Ben's Restaurant, 990 de Maisonneuve Boulevard, corner Metcalfe Street

Reuben's Restaurant, 888 Ste-Catherine Street between Stanley and Peel Streets

For the best smoked meat in Montreal, visit Schwartz's Deli, 3895 St-Laurent Boulevard just north of Prince Arthur Street.

Basha Restaurant serves really cheap Lebanese food at 930 Ste-Catherine Street, just west of University Street. An all-you-can-eat Sunday buffet is the special at the Basha Restaurant on the corner of Guy and Lincoln Streets.

Sakura Restaurant prepares excellent sushi and Japanese dishes and can be found at 2114 de la Montagne Street between de Maisonneuve Boulevard and Ste-Catherine Street.

Vegetarian:

Le Commensal, 680 Ste-Catherine Street, just west of University Street

Bimbo, 3655 St-Laurent

Encore Une Fois, 351 Prince Albert Street in Westmount

Santropol, 3990 St. Urbain corner Duluth

Lux 24 Hour Restaurant contains two levels of international magazines, candies, tobacco, T-shirts, and baked goods for sale. There is also a bar upstairs. All this can be found at 5220 St-Laurent Boulevard just north of Fairmount.

Dim Sum - walk along La Gauchetiere just east of St-Laurent Boulevard and pick your own.

There are great outdoor cafes all along St-Denis Street. Walk north starting at Ste-Catherine Street and never stop! Pick your own - they're all good.

Jardin Nelson Restaurant, with a big outdoor courtyard and live jazz or classical music, serves great onion soup, crepes, and salads in Old Montreal on the Jacques Cartier Square.

You'll find tasty Indian food at Asha Restaurant on the corner of Prince Arthur Street and Park Avenue.

Excellent food, service, setting and prices at the Crocodile Restaurant and Bar on St-Laurent Boulevard just north of Rachel Street.

Le Vieux Munich is a big bavarian beer hall with lots of beer and food - at 1170 St-Denis Street at the corner of René-Lévesque Boulevard.

Prince Arthur Street - This pedestrian street is bustling on summer evenings with restaurant terraces, musicians, and street vendors. At most restaurants you must bring your own wine, which can be purchased at most convenience stores or at the liquor store located at the corner of Prince Arthur and St-Laurent Boulevard. Some of the restaurants located on Prince Arthur include:

Mazurka Restaurant, serving excellent Polish food at unbelievably low prices, can be found at 64 Prince Arthur.

Darbar, 205 Prince Arthur

La Fondue Prince Arthur, 70 Prince Arthur

Plus many more restaurants serving big platefulls of tasty Greek food.

Trendy Spots Along St-Laurent Boulevard (i.e. the Main):

Buono Notte, serves delicious but expensive Italian food at 3518 St-Laurent.

Try Pizzadelic, 3509 St-Laurent, for great gourmet pizza.

Shed Cafe, 3515 St-Laurent

Cafétéria, 35 81 St-Laurent

La Cucina, 5134 St-Laurent

Beauty's, famous for its breakfast fare, can be found at 93 Mont Royal West. If you are too hungry to wait in line at Beauty's, try Dusty's at 4510 Park Avenue, about 3 1/2 blocks away.

For great hamburgers and curly fries, eat at Mr. Steer located at 1198 Ste-Catherine West.

Out and About in Montreal

Tourist information which is available at registration and at the Institute office (Dawson College 2C12); come see us for extra tips! We also recommend that you pick up copies of The Mirror and Hour which are two free newspapers available around the city. They will inform you of events occurring while you are here, such as the Jazz Festival and the International Fireworks Competition.

We hope you enjoy Montreal. Please remember that this is a big city - be sure to protect your person and know where your valuables are at all times. RVC has a safe for anything you would like to safeguard.

Additional Information

Computer Lab

The Sandiford computer lab is located in the basement of the Bronfman Building, 1001 Sherbrooke St. West (please see your campus map). The names of all students in the Summer Institute have been given to the personnel at the lab - bring some identification with you. To use the lab, register with the staff at the information desk. There is no charge. Hours: Monday-Thursday 1 - 6 pm, Saturday and Sunday 12 - 6 pm.

Library

The Education Library is located on the 1st floor of the Education Building at 3700 McTavish Street. Hours: Monday to Thursday: 8:30 am - 6:45 pm, Friday: 8:30 am - 12:45 pm. The library is closed on Saturday and Sunday. As it is summertime, and therefore less used, it is advisable to call before you go to make sure they are open (☎ 398-4689).

For a quiet place to study located at the bottom of the hill head to the McLennan Library at Sherbrooke and McTavish streets, open for study Monday to Thursday 9 am - 8:45 pm, Friday 9 am - 5:45 pm and Saturday 10 am - 5:45 pm.

Parking

If parking space is not available at the Royal Victoria College dormitories then parking passes may be purchased from Joan Spence during the registration periods. The pass will cost $23.50 per week and will allow you to park at the McIntyre Garage located off Peel Street near avenue des Pins. Parking at your own risk is allowed on outdoor McGill lots when the Garage is closed.

If you wish to drive to the seminars, you may park at Dawson college for $6 a day.

If you are able to find a space (not an easy task), you can park on the street overnight near the dormitories. Watch the signs to see when your car should be moved. You may park Monday morning (July 4th) at the McIntyre, buy your pass during the day, and just show it to the attendant on your way out.

Sports Facilities

Students may use the facilities at the Sir Arthur Currie Gymnasium, 475 Pine Avenue (phone 398-7000). You may purchase either a day pass at $3 or a two week temporary membership for $12. This fee will allow you to use the Weston pool, gym, track, weight room, tennis and squash courts, depending on their availability. Schedules may be picked up at the Gym.

The names of all Summer Institute students have been given to the guard at the Gym. Identify yourself at the entrance way when you arrive. Day passes may be purchased from the guard and two week passes may be purchased from the gym office.

Thomson House

This is the Post-Graduate Students' Society's House, located at 3650 McTavish Street. All students from the Summer Institute are welcome. Thomson House staff have been given a list of all Summer Institute staff and students. Thomson House offers a comfortable bar, TV, movies, and other entertainment. Check it out! Hours: Monday - Thursday: 11:30 am - 11 pm; Friday: 11:30 am - 2 am; Saturday: 4 pm - 2 am; closed Sunday.

Transcripts

Students taking the workshops for credit who want official transcripts to be sent to them and their "home" university must make a request in writing or in person: Transcripts Department McGill University (room 110 of the James Administration Building), 845 Sherbrooke Street, Montreal, Quebec, H3A 2T5. Tel.: (514) 398-4450. Fax: (514) 398-8939. Hours: 9 am - 4:30 pm Monday through Thursday. Cost: $10.00 for the first copy and $4.00 each for any addition copy ordered at the same time. The transcript office will need the following information: Full name including maiden and married name, McGill student number, date of birth, semester attended, signature, and return address. Be sure to indicate that the transcripts should only be sent out once summer marks are on your record.

Please note that transcripts are available upon request ONLY.

GET TOGETHER!

There will be a welcoming wine and cheese party on Monday, July 4th from 4:30 to 6 pm at Temple Emanu-el Beth Sholom, in the Community House.

A BBQ to celebrate a number of wonderful events will take place on the Dawson College Campus at 5:30 pm on Thursday, July 7th.

We are also planning a very informal dance and celebration to mark the closing of our Summer Institute. This event will take place on Thursday, July 14th at Thomson House, starting at 8 pm.
